CARROLL.

John Hogan of Norborne sold, last week, a span of 15-months-old mules for $150, each.

John W. Johnson, aged 37 years, died at his home in Norborne Saturday of tuberculosis.

Geo. L. England has sold his 240-acre farm northwest of Norborne to Mr. Parks of Illinois. Consideration $120 an acre.

C. C. Martin of Cherry Valley presented Bro. Crutchley of the Norborne Democrat with a 6 1/4 pound sweet potato last week. Yam, yam.

"Maud" has made her appearance near Norborne. Thursday, Sam Wheeler, who lives northwest of that city was kicked by a mule and sustained a fracture of two ribs.

Saturday evening the barn of Dr. Colby west of Carrollton was struck by lightning. The cupola was knocked off, a hole was torn in the roof and a rafter was torn out. The bolt passed through the hay and sheaf oats in the barn and, strange to say, did not set fire to it.

Bosworth will have a three-days' Farmers carnival, September 27, 28 and 29th. The booklet containing a list of prizes shows that the carnival committee has taken cognizance of every department of farm life. The prizes are of sufficient importance to stimulate rivalry and bring forth a goodly number of exhibitors.

Cunningham & Cropper of Keytesville have completed their work on the Big Lake drainage ditch near DeWitt and are now at work on the Casebolt-Boelson-Zunn ditch. The greater part of the Big Lake ditch, which drains several hundred acres of land, was made about two years ago and those interested express satisfaction at the results obtained from digging of the ditch.

At the coroner's inquest on the remains of Sam'l Humphrey, who was killed by a Wabash train at Norborne Thursday, August 30, the jury returned a verdict blaming the railroad company, stating that the train was exceeding the speed limit. According to the evidence of both the engineer and fireman the train was running 50 miles an hour through that city.

Hale had a big fire Saturday morning, consuming five one-story brick buildings on Main street. The fire started in an icehouse back of J. E. Dempsey's drug store and in a short time the building was on fire. There being no fire department, the flames quickly spread. Myers & Fullerton were the heaviest losers. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

MARRIAGES.

Ira Shively and Miss Cora Jones, both of Carrollton.

Harley Pence and Miss Lizzie Stanley, both of Wakenda.

Edward Virts and Miss Elizabeth B. Thompson, both of Bogard.

James E. Wright of Norborne and Miss Eva Burruss of Liberty.

Roscoe Kimbrough of Moberly and Miss Opal Davis of Jacksonville.

SALINE.

The annual harvest picnic took place at Sweet Springs Saturday. A large crowd was in attendance.

The Democratic congressional campaign will open at Marshall September 17. Big preparations are being made to make it a record-breaker.

Andy Casebolt broke all fishing records for hook and line around Miami when he caught a 20-pound carp in the Wakenda Monday—but it got away.

C. M. Siler of Marshall was showing some very large peaches in that city last week. They measured 11 1/4 inches in circumference. They were of the free-stone variety, very juicy and sweet and entitled to be classed as a blue ribbon kind.

As a dog exterminator and dog tax-collector Marshal Ed Maddox of Marshall is entitled to the belt so far as heard from this season. He has killed 69 canines on which no tax was paid and has collected $194 dog tax.

The Shackelford correspondent to the Marshall Citizen reports that Tom Bagnell and Bob Montague, two venturesome hunters of Marshall, were in that neighborhood Friday bagging doves and mountain lions. We have heard girls called doves, but we never knew of farmers being called mountain lions before.

MARRIAGES.

J. R. Phillips of Sedalia and Miss Cora Reno of Nelson.

Clifford Casebolt of Miami and Miss Cora Fowler of Fairview.

Clarence Cobb of Kansas City and Miss Hattie Enyard of Malta Bend.
